STANDARD TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE - Imerys Performance & Filtration Minerals Pvt. Ltd.

Every sale of any product ("Product") made by Imerys Performance & Filtration Minerals Pvt. Ltd., an Indian company whose registered office is at Shakambhari Logistics Park Bhiwandi, Dist-Thane, Maharashtra 421302 India with registration number U14200MH2002PTC217789 (the "Seller") is governed by these terms and conditions of sales (these "GTCs"). Seller and the Purchaser agree that placing a purchase order (PO) implies full and unreserved acceptance by the Purchaser of these said GTCs. No special conditions shall prevail over these GTCs unless the Seller expressly so agrees in writing. These GTCs take precedence over any terms and conditions of purchase and all other documents particular to the Purchaser (including Purchaser's terms and conditions for sale, if any)

1. Orders

No order shall be binding on the Seller until explicitly confirmed as "accepted" in writing on each page of customer's Purchase Order hence onwards mentioned as (PO) by the authorised officer of the Seller within 14 working days of receipt of PO at the Seller. Unless mutually agreed otherwise, Seller's offers are valid for a period of 15 days only. In the event of delays in executing the PO, attributable to the Purchaser, the Seller reserves the right to cancel part of the order or the full order by notice with immediate effect. Any sums that the Purchaser may have paid shall accrue to the Seller as compensation for the loss and damage occurring to the Seller on account of such delay. Such compensations will include but not limited to stock carrying cost, capital locked cost, price drop or increase effect or any other incidental losses. Parties agree that the said damages are mutually agreed losses likely to be suffered and incurred by the Seller, and are not by way of penalty.

2. Product Specifications - Limited Warranty and Liabilities

The seller warrants that the Products comply in all material respects with either the Seller's standard product data sheets submitted at the time of offer or the specifications agreed in writing with the Purchaser. The Seller may change standard product data sheet at any time during the PO execution. The seller's warranty shall be limited to only up to the extent of replacement of material for mutually agreed quantity. Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it is the Purchaser's responsibility to ensure that (a) the Products ordered are fit and suitable for its own products, production methods and intended purposes and (b) the use of the Products complies with all applicable laws and regulations (including consumer protection laws) and does not infringe third party intellectual property rights. Consequently the Seller clearly disclaims any legal warranty in regard to (a) and (b) above and the Products are used by the Purchaser at its sole risk. By issuing the P.O., the Purchaser indemnifies the Seller against all third parties claims in connection with the sale by the Purchaser of any item incorporating the Products. No statement(s) made in relation to the Products is intended or shall be understood as inducing infringement of a valid patent.

3. Complaints

Upon receipt of the product from CIRL, the Purchaser shall immediately inspect the Products or have the Products inspected as to apparent defects or non-compliance (including weight) of the Product. The Purchaser loses the right to claim that a defect exists if it does not give notice thereof to the Seller in writing immediately, and at the latest within 7 working days of delivery of the Products; concealed defects must be notified in writing within 30 working days of Product delivery. Where the Purchaser does not notify the Seller, within the aforesaid period, the Products shall have been deemed to be accepted in all respects by the Purchaser, and (i) the Seller would not have any further liability in respect thereof, and (ii) all rights of the Purchaser in respect of any defect and/ or deficiency in the Products shall have been deemed to be expressly waived. In the event of damage or loss while in transit, the Purchaser must take up these concerns and exercise any recourse it may have against the Carriers directly.

The Seller's warranty above is subject to the Purchaser (a) supplying all required evidence of any non-compliance or defects found, (b) co-operating in the inspection and investigation of the said defects by the Seller, and (c) ensuring that no intervention on the Products that are the subject of a claim is carried out, without the Seller's prior written agreement. No Product may be returned without the Seller's prior written agreement.

Subject to the foregoing paragraph: (a) the Seller shall under no circumstances whatever be liable to the Purchaser, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for (aa) defects caused by use of the Products, including handling, storing subsequent to the transfer of risks by the Purchaser or third parties that is faulty or non-compliant with regard to the Seller's recommendations and prudent industry practice; it being understood that in any event, all claims made after the Products have been resold by the Purchaser, or altered contrary to the Seller's instructions in any form whatsoever shall be null and void, and (bb) any loss of profit, or any indirect or consequential loss arising under or in connection with the contract, and (b) the Seller's total liability to the Purchaser in respect of all other losses arising under or in connection with the order, whether in contract, tort unlawful act (including negligence), injustice, breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in any event be strictly limited, to either the replacement of, or the refund of the amounts paid by the Purchaser towards the Products, as the Seller shall see fit.

4. Deliveries - Shipment

Delivery times given in accepted PO are not restricted to the terms and conditions in PO. For any delay seller shall inform purchaser in advance. Thus delayed delivery does not give rise to payment of any compensation, penalty, withholding of payment or cancellation of current orders.

Without prejudice to any other relief available under the law, the Seller may hold the Purchaser liable for any loss or damages caused by the negligence or the refusal of the Purchaser to take delivery of the Products. Unless agreed otherwise by the Parties or stated in the invoice, Products are sold and delivered Ex-Works INCOTERMS® (ICC, 2010). Products are loaded and transported at the Purchaser's risk and liability. It is the Purchaser's responsibility to (a) contract for transport and to take out all necessary insurance to cover damage to, as well as caused by, the Products (in the course of such transport or subsequent thereto), and (b) express all reservations to or exercise any recourse against the Carriers, in the event of damage, loss or missing items.

The Seller shall be under no obligation to deliver the Products if the Purchaser is in breach of any of its obligations towards the Seller.

5. Weights - Quantities

The Purchaser shall not reject the Products on grounds of weight loss or shortage.

All Products delivered are sold on the basis of the weight recorded by the Seller at the time of dispatch. Small weight losses arising during transit have been taken into account in the price and no claim can be made in respect of weight loss unless check weighing at the Purchaser's works indicates a weight loss in excess of what is acceptable commercial practice for the concerned Products.

6. Prices

The Products are sold at the prices agreed at the time the seller accepts the order. Unless agreed otherwise, prices are exclusive of taxes (including cess, levies and surcharges of any kind whatsoever), duties, carriage, insurance and packaging. These shall be added where applicable to the purchase price. Any change in statutory taxes (including cess, levies and surcharges of any kind whatsoever), duties, carriage, insurance and packaging at the time and date of actual despatches will be levied extra.

Any PO with supply duration more than 60 days may have a price escalation clause as mutually agreed.

7. Invoicing - Payment - Damages

An invoice shall be either enclosed with every delivery or separately sent, and shall include all required references.

Unless agreed otherwise by the Seller in writing: (a) all payments are due within 0 days of the date the invoice is issued, without discount, (b) payments shall be made in the currency set out in the invoice, and (c) all payments shall be made through the method set out in the invoice. In the absence of payment instructions in the invoice stating the contrary, payments from the Purchaser to the Seller shall be made directly by wire transfer to the bank account designated by the Seller, and payments by wire transfer shall be deemed executed when the Seller's account is credited with cleared funds. The Purchaser must perform its payment obligations notwithstanding any dispute or claims arising in relation to Purchaser's orders. In the event the Purchaser does not pay all amounts at their due date: (a) any discounts shall no longer apply and the full price shall be payable (b) all other amounts due by the Purchaser to the Seller for any other reason whatsoever shall automatically and immediately become payable, (c) the Seller may suspend all current orders and/or claim advance payment for any current or new order from the Purchaser, (d) the Seller may by notice cancel ipso jure the sale forty-eight (48) hours after notice to pay has remained without effect and apply for a competent court order to return the Products, (e) the purchaser or their group companies shall not cross link invoices for payment consideration, (f) in case of a payment default by the purchaser as per agreed PO, the seller has the right to adjust his payable from the purchaser and its group companies.

Furthermore, any amount not paid at its due date, shall bear interest at the rate of two percent (2%) per month, or the maximum interest rate permitted under the law, whichever is higher. Late payment interest and the lump sums shall be paid by the Purchaser immediately and without need for prior notice from the Seller from the due date until the amount due has been paid in full.

Any advance or otherwise lump sum amount payment made by purchaser in the form of instrument (Cheque, DD, bank LC etc.) will be associated with letter issued by purchaser defining clear references (including prevailing tax references) of payment to the PO numbers or Invoices against which the payment is made.

The remedies set out above are without prejudice to any other remedy available to the Seller, under law, equity or otherwise, including any claims for compensation or damages.

8. Packaging

Unless agreed otherwise in writing, the Seller does not take back packaging. It is the Purchaser's responsibility to deal with the use, recycling, storage and/or destruction thereof in accordance with the law. No packaging displaying the Seller's trademark can be used for anything other than the Seller's Products.

9. Reservation of title

Title to the Products shall pass in line with the agreed incoterms of the PO.

Until such time the full payment is made, the Purchaser shall insure the Products to their full replacement value, and arrange for the Seller to be noted on the policy of insurance as the loss payee.

Until full payment of these amounts, the Purchaser shall identify the Products delivered and shall not mix them with other products of a similar nature originating from other suppliers; failing which the Seller may claim indemnification and take back any Products still identifiable or which are of similar nature to and quality with the Products; the Purchaser agrees that it will not oppose any action or any proceedings initiated by the Seller (including by way of application to a competent court) to enter upon any property upon which the Products or any part thereof are sold, or upon which the Seller reasonably believes them to be kept in order to repossess Products that have not been fully paid for.

The Purchaser, till such time as the full payment to the to the seller in accordance with the terms hereof, shall inform the Seller without delay in the event of an attachment order or any other third Party intervention (including but not limited to liquidation, insolvency, merger, take over, reconstruction etc.) affecting the Products, so that the Seller may apply to have the order set aside and preserve its rights. The Purchaser, till such time as the full payment to the to the seller in accordance with the terms hereof, shall inform the Seller without delay in the event of an attachment order or any other third Party intervention (including but not limited to liquidation, insolvency, merger, take over, reconstruction etc.) affecting the Products, so that the Seller may apply to have the order set aside and preserve its rights.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser further agrees not to use the Products to create any charge, encumbrance or otherwise assign title to the Products as a security, till such time as the full payment of the Products is made to the Seller in accordance with the terms hereof. - Point to be added to affect our lien on any available asset in case of if our asset is not available / identifiable

10. Suspension and Termination

Seller is entitled to suspend and/or terminate the sale/supply of any Products to the Purchaser, without having any further obligation towards the Purchaser, if (a) the Purchaser breaches any of its obligation arising under these GTCs; or (b) the Purchaser threatens to stop or suspend the payment of all or part of its debts payable to the Seller, or is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or (c) any step is taken by any person including the Purchaser with a view to the administration, winding up, acquisition, liquidation, bankruptcy or any other similar activity of the Purchaser either by the purchaser or any other agency related to the purchaser or otherwise, or any step is taken to enforce security over or a distress, execution or other similar process is levied or served against all or substantially all of the assets or undertaking of the Purchaser, including the appointment of a receiver.

11. Indemnity

Without prejudice to any similar rights or remedies available under these GTCs or at law, Purchaser will indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Seller, its affiliates, directors and employees, against any liability (whether strict, absolute or otherwise) for any claim, loss, damage, cost, and/or expense and other costs of litigation on account of any injury, disease or death of persons (including Purchaser's employees) or damage to property (including Purchaser's property) or the environment arising out of or in connection with: (a) Purchaser's loading, unloading, storage, handling, transportation, sale, use or disposal of the Products; and/or (b) Purchaser's negligence or any failure by Purchaser to comply with any of its obligations under these GTCs or the requirements of any applicable laws.

12. Force Majeure

The Seller shall not be liable for non-performance of all or part of its obligations where such non-performance results from the occurrence of a case of force majeure. Force majeure is an event which is not within Seller's reasonable control and could not reasonably be prevented, avoided or removed by Seller and which causes the Seller to be delayed, in whole or in part, or unable, using commercially reasonable efforts, to partially or wholly perform its obligations; such as, but not limited to: war, riot, strike, lock-out, acts of governmental authorities, Act of God, fire, natural disasters, exceptional weather conditions, raw material shortage, etc.

If such an event results in the suspension of the performance by the Seller of its obligations for a period in excess of ninety (90) consecutive days, either Party may then cancel the sale by notice and without compensation being due by either Party.

13. Applicable law - Dispute resolution

These GTCs are subject to and shall be governed by laws of India. The Parties expressly exclude the application of the United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods of April 11, 1980.

The Parties shall endeavor to amicably resolve all disputes arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination (a "Dispute"). In the event the Parties fail to reach an amicable settlement with regard to any Dispute within thirty (30) days of a written notice of dispute from one Party to the other, such Dispute may be referred to and finally resolved by binding arbitration administered by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC") in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the SIAC for the time being in force which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference in this clause.

The seat of the arbitration shall be Mumbai, India. The arbitration will be conducted in the English language. The arbitral award shall be final and binding on the Parties.

14. Intellectual Property Rights - Confidential information

All samples, proposals, drawings, documentation prepared or disclosed by the Seller in connection therewith as well as patents, trademarks, tradenames, copyrights, designs in relation to the Products shall be and remain the absolute property of the Seller and are deemed confidential, whether or not marked as such. The Purchaser shall not therefore disclose the same to any third parties.

The Purchaser shall not have any claim or right or property therein and shall not register or cause to be registered in any part of the world any patent, trademark, tradename, copyright or design similar to, or any imitation of, such patent, trademark, tradename, copyright or design.

The Purchaser, either directly or through a third party, shall not reverse engineer or chemically or otherwise analyse for reverse engineering purposes, any samples of the Products and will not use any information related to the Products for the production of Products similar or equivalent to the Products or the supply thereof from a competitive source. This limitation shall not prevent analysis in the case of a bona fide product liability dispute.

15. Entire Agreement

These GTCs constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the Parties in respect of the matters dealt with in it and supercedes any and all previous agreements, pre-contractual statements, discussions, deliberations, representations, arrangements, terms and understandings, whether oral or written, between the Parties relating to such matters notwithstanding the terms thereof being expressed to survive termination or supersession.

Each of the Party hereby represents and warrants that they have read, reviewed and understood the terms of these GTCs, and have consented to abide by the terms thereof on their own free will and in accordance with their own judgment and upon advice of their own legal counsel. Further, each of the Parties acknowledges and agrees that (a) in entering into this sale it does not rely on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, warranty or understanding (whether negligently or innocently made) other than as expressly set out in these GTCs; and (b) they shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations, rules, orders and other requirements of governmental authorities having jurisdiction over it, in fulfilling its obligations under these GTCs.

16. Data Protection

The Purchaser shall ensure that any data or information provided by the Seller pursuant to or in connection with sale of the Products, shall remain at all times the property of the Seller. The Purchaser shall take all necessary measures to preserve the integrity and prevent any damage or destructions of the data and information received from the Seller. The Purchaser agrees to comply with, and to take adequate measures to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Information Technology Act, 2000 and Rules thereunder (as may be amended or updated from time to time), and also the data protection and data privacy laws of any other country, as may be applicable to the Parties.

17. Third Party Rights

These GTCs are intended for the exclusive benefit of the Parties only, and nothing contained in these GTCs shall be construed as creating any rights or benefits in or to any third party.

18. Severability

If any provision of these GTCs is found to be wholly or partly illegal, invalid, unenforceable or unreasonable, it shall to the extent of such illegality, invalidity, unenforceability or unreasonableness be deemed severable and the remaining provisions of these GTCs and the remainder of such provisions shall continue in full force and effect. Parties shall negotiate, in good faith, a valid, legal and enforceable provision in lieu of such provision, which most nearly reflects the Parties' intent and circumstances at the time entering into these GTCs. The Parties shall make all reasonable efforts and take all necessary actions to replace any illegal or unenforceable provision of these GTCs with a legal and enforceable substitute provision.

19. Export sales

Where the Product is to be exported outside the territory of India, the Purchaser shall be liable for (i) ensuring compliance with all other applicable laws (including export control and foreign exchange regulations) in relation to the transportation and export of the Products, and (ii) procuring all export related authorisations and all compliances with applicable foreign exchange laws/ regulations in India. The Purchaser shall indemnify and hold harmless the Seller against any and all loss and damage that may occur to the Seller on account of any default in compliance with such applicable laws and regulations.
