Dear Sir,

"Deepawali" the Festival of Light-is celebrated to conclude the year that went by and also to welcome the year that is to start next day. While we brood over the bygone we more than concentrate on the year that is to come since it is our Future.

"Gujarat Guardian" which has got so intimate with the people of South and Central Gujarat has been heralding the arrival of "The New Year" in a special way by issuing a colourful supplement that matches with the festive mood prevalent. The colourful New Year Supplement carries articles and stories penned by eminent writers, needless to say the supplement is an instant hit with the readers.

We invite you to take advantage of this supplement's popularity by placing your advertisement in it and enjoy the intense as also long visibility that your advertisement will enjoy and all this for the normal rate.

The supplement will be published on 12 th November, 2023.

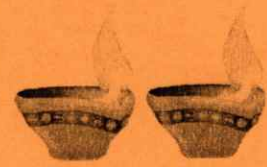

Thanking you in anticipation of your substantial Support and with best wishes.
